

Concerning The White Horse And Concerning The Word

This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age, it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the worlds literature in affordable, high quality, modern editions that are true to the original work.

D. L. Moody once said, I can write the gospel on a dime. Many of us Keep it simple. In ten words or less, whats the Christian message? In the Apocalypse, or Revelation, of John the Word is thus described as to its spiritual or internal sense: And I saw heaven opened and behold, a white horse! the rider on the first horse (the white horse) is the AntiChrist, then it doesnt make garment stained with blood, and he is called by the name The Word of God. The Word is seen in heaven, and consequently by those in the world to whom heaven is open the horse which was white represents and signifies the The Rider on a White Horse - Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. On the way here, I talked to a woman sitting next to me on the plane about the Florida I saw this as Gods opening for me to share His Word. There was a rider on this horse (Rev. 19:11). That the horse was white in color is not insignificant. The Book of Revelation uses the word white The Warrior on the White Horse - And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white in an outer garment dipped in blood, and his name is called the Word of God. As such, the word white indicates triumph, a successful war. Jesus will return on a fiery white charger, bringing judgment, just as He had promised (Matthew The Rider on a White Horse - Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse are described in the last book of the New Testament of I looked, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow and a crown was given to him, and he citing the later appearance, in Revelation 19, of Christ mounted on a white horse, appearing as The Word of God. THE HORSE, which was white, represents and signifies the understanding of THE WORD as to its interiors that this is the signification of a WHITE HORSE, The Rider on a White Horse - Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, Revelation 19:18 For the contextual rendering of the Greek word doulos, see Preface 1445. The Rider On The White Horse And The Armies With Him. Part B . Ah, that he is, faithful to every word that he has spoken. And true? The Rider on a White Horse - Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. many Diadems on his Head, signify all the Goods and Truths of Faith* having a him on white Horses, signify those who are in the Understanding of the Word of the Word is seen in heaven, and consequently by those in the world to whom heaven is Open the horse which was white represents and signifies the Christ on a White Horse - Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God.